

2024 SASPA Conference Program
Equitable Excellence: Context Matters
Morphettville Event Centre: Day 1 – Thursday 22nd August

8:00am - Registration Opens & Networking time
8:45am - Conference starts
Welcome to Country	Ashum Yarlupina Owen – Ngangki Warra
Minister's Official Opening	Hon. Blair Boyer, Minister for Education, Training & Skills
Chief Executive's Conference Welcome	Jayne Heath– SASPA Chief Executive
Keynote #1: What does equitable excellence look like in your context?	Professor Scott Eacott
11:00am - Morning Tea
Breakout Session 1 – 3 sessions to choose from 1. What the research said – Shining new light on the practices of school leaders. 2. Leading strategies for self-regulation and focus for secondary students: Strategies to proactively address classroom distraction and disengagement from learning. 3. Towards Cultural Relevance: Strategies for Building an Inclusive School Community for Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Students and Families.
Breakout Session 2 – 3 sessions to choose from 1. Is my school equitably excellent? 2. Leading strategies for self-regulation and focus for secondary students: Strategies to proactively address classroom distraction and disengagement from learning. 3. Targeting whole school literacy to develop a culture of continuous improvement.
1:45pm - Lunch
Keynote #2: Dr Alice Rigney Oration. What is Education For? publicness, equality, superdiverse learners.	Professor Lester-Irabinna Rigney
SASPA President invite to networking hour	Eva Kannis-Torry, SASPA President
4:15pm Close of Day
Networking function
6:00pm Dinner function (optional registration)

Morphettville Event Centre: Day 2 – Friday 23rd August

8:00am - Registration Opens & Networking time
8:45am - Welcome Day 2	Host/MC
Welcome to Country	Uncle Moogy
Address to delegates	Prof. Martin Westwell, CE Department for Education
9:50am - Morning tea
Breakout Session 3 – 3 sessions to choose from 1. Person-centred change leadership 2. Doing school differently 3. Data4Impact
Perspectives on leading for equitable excellence. Why context matters - Panel	Facilitator: Danielle Elston
12:50am - Lunch
Keynote 3: Kristin Alford	Dr Kristin Alford
Closing Remarks	Jayne Heath
3:20pm - Conference Close	